Erik Andersen Appointed by U.S. Secretary of Commerce to Northern California District Export Council

SAUSALITO, CA – October 21, 2008 - Remedy Interactive Inc. announced today that Erik Andersen, Vice President of Strategic Partnerships, was appointed by U.S. Secretary of Commerce Carlos Gutierrez to the Northern California District Export Council. The Northern California District Export Council is composed of leaders throughout Northern California whose knowledge of international business provides a source of professional advice for local firms. The Council encourages and supports export expansion activities by counseling local businesses, identifying export finance sources, building local export assistance partnerships with other organizations, and promoting international education at the community level.

Mr. Andersen brings to the Council over 15 years of experience in international trade, alliances, and business development. At Remedy Interactive, he focuses on developing export opportunities for the company's human capital risk management software. Prior to Remedy Interactive, Mr. Andersen served in a variety of international roles at PeopleSoft, Hewlett-Packard Company, and Federal Express. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Davis and his MBA from Vanderbilt University's Owen Graduate School of Management.
